

TARGETS

The YES strategy explores six dimensions of youth empowerment namely; psychological, community, organizational, economic, social and cultural.

- ✔ Psychological empowerment
- ✔ Educational and Community empowerment
- ✔ Organizational empowerment
- ✔ Economic empowerment
- ✔ Social empowerment
- ✔ Cultural

Through these dimensions of empowerment, the Youth Empowerment Seychelles works on empowering youth in one or more aspects of their lives.

Activities of the Association

The association will work to achieve its objectives by:

Supporting and developing a network of youth branches within and outside of the country;

Implementing activities such as campaigns, exhibitions, meetings, lectures, classes, seminars and courses;

Working with likeminded organizations to develop, produce and disseminate materials related to the objectives of the association.

Fostering research into any aspect of the objectives of the association and to expand its youth membership base.

OUR VISION

A Seychelles where the youths see and exploit their real potentials in a caring and healthy environment where highly motivated individuals are identified, educated and mobilized to become leaders in our Society.

ABOUT US

I am an Entrepreneur, Biomedical scientist and conflict and dispute resolutioner. I specialize in Entrepreneurship and innovation. Working in the business industry for the last 10 years and recently creating an innovative organic replacement to chemical fertilizers. My passion in business has opened my mind to innovation but innovation that promotes sustainability, healthy living and to open the business market to a more democratic business style.

It is my interest in currently global Youth affairs that lead me to create the Youth Empowerment Seychelles (YES) organisation. I felt it is time that the youth of Seychelles have their voices heard and play an open and active role in the development of Seychelles. I believe that by providing a base of support and empowerment we can be the change that the youth need to develop themselves and to build a future where they are the pillars of our society

STRATEGY

Bring about strategies and solutions for the youth by the youth to overcome cultural obstacles, social barriers and prejudices.

Increase access to various services, programs and resources, as well as promoting a safe environment for mental, emotional, physical and psychological well-being to empower young people to reach their full potential.

Encouraging and equipping young people to be active citizens who participate within the Community, and help bring about a safer, fairer and more sustainable Seychelles.
